Subject: Eid al-Adha

To Whom it May Concern:

The unnamed employee/student is currently preparing to observe Eid al-Adha, one of the two major Islamic holidays celebrated globally by Muslims. While Ramadan and Eid al-Fitr mark the end of a month of fasting, Eid al-Adha—known as the “Festival of Sacrifice”—commemorates the legacy of Prophet Abraham (Ibrahim) and his family. On this day, Muslims in the DFW Metroplex will join the rest of the global, Muslim community in prayer and celebration.

This year, Eid al-Adha will be held on Friday, June 6, 2025; provided, however, that the celebration lasts for three days.

Therefore, pursuant to EDUC § 51.911 and 42 U.S.C. 2000e et seq., we ask that you allow the unnamed employee/student to be excused from work/school from Friday, June 6, 2025 through Sunday, June 8, 2025, as a religious excused absence, so that s/he may be with their family and community and attend Eid and the ensuing religious celebrations.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call our mosque at 972-231-5698 or email us at staff@iant.com.
